THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. At the meeting of the international metal-workers' union in Berlin from 23 to 25 September 1952. Communist delegates [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] 25X1 discussed plans for common resistance to the Schuman Plan for the iron and mining industries.
2. Two Russian speakers emphasized that a fight must be carried on in these industries, since they are the centre of the Western rearmament effort. Plans for unified strike and sabotage measures were discussed. The Russians stated that action taken so far has been successful in only small degree.
3. The delegations returned to their homes to organize resistance groups which are to be put into effect, during October and thereafter, the plans issued by Karlshorst. It is reported that the [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] preparations are well advanced.
